Things to do in Salzburg

Landmarks & Monuments

Salzburg's skyline is dominated by magnificent baroque architecture and medieval fortifications that tell centuries of history. These iconic landmarks showcase the city's rich heritage and architectural grandeur.

Must See

Hohensalzburg Fortress

2-3 hours No Booking Needed

Map

One of Europe's largest and best-preserved medieval castles, perched 120 meters above the city. Built in 1077, this imposing fortress offers breathtaking panoramic views of Salzburg and the surrounding Alps. Explore the medieval state rooms, the Golden Hall with its ornate gold-leaf decorations, torture chamber, and military museums. The fortress played a crucial role in defending prince-archbishops and has never been conquered. Visitors can reach the summit via a historic funicular railway from Festungsgasse or hike up the mountain path for an adventurous approach.

Must See

Mirabell Palace and Gardens

1-2 hours No Booking Needed

A stunning baroque palace built in 1606 by Prince-Archbishop Wolf Dietrich for his beloved Salome Alt. The palace features the magnificent Marble Hall, one of the world's most beautiful wedding venues, with ornate stucco decorations and frescoes. The surrounding Mirabell Gardens are a horticultural masterpiece featuring geometric flower beds, classical statues, fountains, and the famous Pegasus Fountain. Music lovers will recognize settings from The Sound of Music film. Don't miss the Dwarf Garden with its quirky baroque statues and the enchanting rose garden offering castle views.

Must See Book Ahead

Hellbrunn Palace

2-3 hours Book Ahead

Map

A delightful early baroque summer residence built in 1615, famous for its ingenious trick fountains and water features designed to surprise and entertain guests. The palace's elaborate hydraulic systems, powered entirely by water pressure, include hidden spraying fountains, mechanical theaters with water-driven figures, and the Neptune Grotto. Explore the grand palace rooms, marvel at the Chinese pavilion where The Sound of Music's 'Sixteen Going on Seventeen' was filmed, and wander through the extensive landscaped grounds featuring gazebos, ponds, and walking trails. The magical atmosphere and playful water jokes make this a unique experience.

Top Pick

Residenz Palace

1.5-2 hours No Booking Needed

The former residence of Salzburg's powerful prince-archbishops, showcasing opulent baroque and Renaissance architecture. Built between 1596 and 1619, the palace contains 180 rooms including the lavish State Rooms with elaborate ceiling frescoes, intricate stucco work, and period furnishings. Highlights include the stunning Conference Hall, the White Hall, and the magnificent Carabinieri Hall. The Residenz Gallery houses an impressive collection of 16th-19th century European paintings. The palace's grandeur reflects the political and religious power of Salzburg's prince-archbishops who ruled as both spiritual and secular leaders.

Tips for Landmarks & Monuments

- Salzburg Card advantage: Get free admission to most landmarks and unlimited public transport
- Early morning visits: Beat the crowds at popular sites like Hohensalzburg Fortress by arriving when they open

- Photography: Golden hour (sunrise/sunset) provides stunning lighting for fortress and palace photography

Museums & Galleries

Salzburg's museum landscape reflects its rich cultural heritage, from Mozart's musical genius to contemporary art and fascinating local history. These institutions preserve and celebrate the city's contributions to European culture.

Must See

Mozart's Birthplace (Geburtshaus)

1-1.5 hours No Booking Needed

Step into the actual apartment where Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart was born on January 27, 1756, at Getreidegasse 9. This yellow townhouse preserves the Mozart family's living quarters across three floors, displaying the composer's childhood violin, portraits, letters, and original musical compositions. Experience the cramped yet charming rooms where the young prodigy began his musical journey. The museum features period instruments, family memorabilia, and fascinating insights into 18th-century Salzburg life. Interactive displays explore Mozart's early compositions and the influence of his father Leopold. An essential pilgrimage site for classical music enthusiasts worldwide.

Top Pick

Mozart Residence (Wohnhaus)

1-1.5 hours No Booking Needed

Map

The spacious home where the Mozart family lived from 1773 to 1787, offering deeper insights into Wolfgang's adolescence and early adult years. Located at Makartplatz, this elegant residence is larger than the birthplace and provides context for Mozart's mature compositional development. The museum features the family's living and music rooms, Mozart's fortepiano, manuscripts, and an extensive audio guide with musical excerpts. Special exhibitions explore Mozart's relationships, travels, and creative process. The Magic Flute Room displays fascinating materials about this masterpiece opera. Combined tickets with the birthplace available for comprehensive Mozart immersion.

Top Pick

Salzburg Museum

Map

The Salzburg Museum’s Neue Residenz location is closed for renovation until approximately spring 2027. Comprehensive exhibitions trace Salzburg's development from Roman times through the prince-archbishops' era to modern times. Highlights include the spectacular Kunstkammer (art chamber) with precious objects, the Panorama Museum featuring a remarkable 360-degree painting of 19th-century Salzburg, and extensive collections of regional art, crafts, and musical instruments. Interactive displays explore daily life, trade, religion, and politics throughout the centuries. The museum provides essential context for understanding Salzburg's unique position as an ecclesiastical principality and cultural crossroads.

Top Pick

Haus der Natur (Natural History Museum)

An outstanding natural history and science museum perfect for families, featuring over 80 exhibition halls spanning multiple floors. Explore comprehensive displays on Alpine wildlife, aquariums with local and tropical fish, a fascinating reptile zoo with live animals, and the Science Center with hands-on physics experiments. Highlights include the Space Hall with meteorites and astronomy exhibits, dinosaur skeletons, crystal formations, and detailed dioramas of regional ecosystems. The aquarium section showcases Mediterranean and tropical marine life. Interactive exhibits make complex scientific concepts accessible and engaging. Children particularly love the hands-on experiments and live animal encounters. Allow substantial time to explore this extensive collection thoroughly.

Notable

Museum der Moderne

1.5-2 hours No Booking Needed

Salzburg's premier contemporary art museum dramatically positioned atop Mönchsberg mountain, offering spectacular city views alongside cutting-edge exhibitions. The striking modern architecture contrasts beautifully with the baroque old town below. Two locations showcase international contemporary art: the main Mönchsberg Museum and the Rupertinum in the city center. Rotating exhibitions feature painting, sculpture, photography, video installations, and new media from 20th and 21st-century artists. The museum's permanent collection includes works by Austrian and international modernists. Reach the museum via Mönchsberg elevator or walking paths. The café terrace provides breathtaking panoramic views perfect for contemplation after viewing exhibitions.

Tips for Museums & Galleries

- Museum passes: Many museums offer combined tickets or are included in the Salzburg Card
- Free first Sunday: Some museums offer free or reduced admission on the first Sunday of each month
- Audio guides: Available in multiple languages at major museums highly recommended for deeper understanding
- Photography rules: Check individual museum policies; flash photography often prohibited to protect artworks

Religious Sites

As the seat of powerful prince-archbishops for centuries, Salzburg boasts magnificent religious architecture representing the height of baroque ecclesiastical artistry. These sacred spaces remain active places of worship while welcoming visitors to admire their architectural and spiritual beauty.

Must See

Salzburg Cathedral (Dom)

45 minutes No Booking Needed

The magnificent baroque cathedral where Mozart was baptized and served as organist, standing as the spiritual heart of Salzburg since 774 AD. The current structure, completed in 1628, features a stunning Italian baroque façade, three bronze doors symbolizing Faith, Hope, and Love. The cathedral accommodates about 900 people. Marvel at the elaborate ceiling frescoes depicting Christ's passion, the ornate high altar, and the impressive dome. The cathedral's organ, with 4,000 pipes, is among Europe's finest. The baptismal font where Mozart was christened remains on display. Part of the DomQuartier museum complex offering combined access to connected treasures.

Must See

St. Peter's Abbey and Cemetery

1 hour No Booking Needed

Map

The oldest continuously operating monastery in the German-speaking world, founded by St. Rupert in 696 AD. The abbey church showcases a stunning blend of Romanesque and rococo architecture with elaborate ceiling frescoes, ornate altars, and precious artworks. The adjacent St. Peter's Cemetery (Friedhof) is hauntingly beautiful with wrought-iron grave markers, family crypts carved into the Mönchsberg cliff face (catacombs), and flower-adorned graves. Notable figures buried here include Mozart's sister Nannerl and composer Michael Haydn. The peaceful atmosphere and artistic tombstones create a contemplative space. The catacombs can be visited and offer fascinating insights into early Christian burial practices.

Notable

Nonnberg Abbey

A serene Benedictine convent founded around 714 AD, perched on Nonnberg hill above the old town. This historic abbey gained worldwide fame as the setting in The Sound of Music where Maria was a novice. While the convent itself remains cloistered and closed to visitors, the beautiful Romanesque church is open for visits, featuring Gothic frescoes, medieval architecture, and a peaceful atmosphere. The convent's exterior and church tower are iconic features of Salzburg's skyline. The walk up to Nonnberg offers lovely views and a tranquil escape from the bustling city center below. Mass is celebrated daily and visitors are welcome to attend services.

Notable

Collegiate Church (Kollegienkirche)

A masterpiece of baroque architecture designed by renowned architect Johann Bernhard Fischer von Erlach and completed in 1707. The church's imposing white façade and harmonious proportions represent the pinnacle of baroque ecclesiastical design. The bright interior features a stunning central-plan layout with magnificent stucco work, elegant columns, and soaring vaults that create a sense of divine light and space. The church regularly hosts classical concerts, taking advantage of its exceptional acoustics. The adjacent University Square (Universitätsplatz) hosts Salzburg's daily green market. This architectural gem exemplifies the grandeur and artistic sophistication of baroque Salzburg.

Tips for Religious Sites

- Respectful attire: Dress modestly when visiting active places of worship shoulders and knees should be covered
- Service times: Check mass schedules if you wish to attend or avoid services for quieter visiting
- Free admission: Most churches are free to enter, though donations are appreciated
- Concert opportunities: Many churches host classical music concerts in the evenings exceptional acoustic experiences
- Quiet hours: Maintain silence and turn off mobile devices inside churches

Squares & Streets

Salzburg's charming squares and historic streets form the living heart of the city, where baroque elegance meets vibrant contemporary life. These pedestrian-friendly spaces invite leisurely exploration, shopping, and people-watching.

Must See

Getreidegasse

1-2 hours No Booking Needed

Salzburg's most famous and picturesque shopping street, a narrow medieval lane lined with tall townhouses featuring elaborate wrought-iron guild signs. This bustling pedestrian street is where Mozart was born (house number 9) and remains the city's premier shopping destination. Admire the artistic hanging signs advertising shops from traditional to modern brands including McDonald's with a elegant golden sign. The street's architecture showcases colorful baroque façades, hidden courtyards (durchhäuser) connecting to parallel streets, and charming arcades. Browse international fashion, traditional Austrian goods, cafés, and specialty shops. The atmospheric passage between old town buildings creates an enchanting shopping experience steeped in history.

Must See

Residenzplatz

The grandest baroque square in Salzburg, dominated by the magnificent Residenzbrunnen (Residence Fountain), one of Europe's largest and most beautiful baroque fountains. Built between 1658-1661, the marble fountain features dramatic sculptures of horses, tritons, and sea creatures surrounding a central pedestal. The expansive square is framed by the Archbishop's Residence, the Cathedral, and elegant townhouses. This impressive space hosts major events including the famous Salzburg Festival outdoor performances, Christmas markets, and summer concerts. The square's harmonious baroque proportions and artistic details make it a masterpiece of urban planning. Horse-drawn carriages (Fiaker) wait here for romantic city tours.

Top Pick

Mozartplatz

An elegant baroque square at the heart of the old town, dominated by the Mozart Monument unveiled in 1842. This bronze statue by sculptor Ludwig Schwanthaler depicts Mozart with a musical score, becoming an iconic symbol of Salzburg. The square is surrounded by beautiful historic buildings including the Neue Residenz (now Salzburg Museum) and offers perfect photo opportunities with the fortress backdrop. Street musicians often perform here, creating an authentic Salzburg atmosphere. The square serves as a central meeting point and starting location for many walking tours. The adjacent Residenzplatz fountain adds to the area's baroque grandeur.

Top Pick

Alter Markt (Old Market)

A charming historic square that served as Salzburg's main marketplace since the 13th century. The intimate square retains its medieval character with elegant townhouses, the beautiful Floriani Fountain (1488), and atmospheric cafés including the famous Café Tomaselli, Austria's oldest coffeehouse established in 1705. The square's pavement features interesting old pharmacy signs and the former Court Pharmacy building with its elaborate rococo interior. Small shops, boutiques, and traditional businesses surround the square. The pedestrian-friendly space invites lingering at outdoor café tables while soaking in centuries of history. During Christmas, the square hosts a picturesque traditional market.

Tips for Squares & Streets

- Walking tours: Join free walking tours starting from Mozartplatz for orientation and historical context
- Shop signs: Look up to admire the artistic wrought-iron signs photographically stunning
- Courtyards: Don't miss exploring the durchhäuser (passageways) connecting streets with hidden courtyards
- Markets: Visit Universitätsplatz for daily green markets and seasonal special markets
- Evening atmosphere: Squares are beautifully lit after dark and less crowded for romantic strolls

Parks & Gardens

Salzburg's green spaces offer peaceful retreats from urban bustle, combining manicured baroque gardens with natural alpine landscapes. These parks provide perfect settings for relaxation, picnics, and panoramic views.

Must See

Mirabell Gardens

45 minutes - 1 hour No Booking Needed

Map

A stunning baroque garden masterpiece designed in geometric perfection with colorful seasonal flower beds, manicured hedges, classical statues, and elegant fountains. Created in 1690, the gardens surround Mirabell Palace and feature the iconic Pegasus Fountain as centerpiece. Four marble groups representing the elements frame the main parterre. The rose garden blooms spectacularly in summer, while the Dwarf Garden displays quirky baroque marble figures. The gardens gained worldwide fame through The Sound of Music 'Do-Re-Mi' scene. Climb the steps for classic fortress views. Free admission makes this a perfect spot for picnics, strolls, and photography. Beautifully illuminated in evenings.

Top Pick

Hellbrunn Park

1-2 hours No Booking Needed

Expansive landscaped grounds surrounding Hellbrunn Palace, offering natural beauty and architectural follies spread across 60 hectares. The romantic English-style park features shaded walking paths, ancient trees, ponds with waterfowl, meadows perfect for picnicking, and whimsical structures including grottoes and pavilions. Discover the famous Sound of Music Gazebo (relocated here from original location) where Liesl and Rolf sang 'Sixteen Going on Seventeen.' Free-roaming deer add charm to woodland areas. The Month Grotto contains acoustic surprises. In summer, families enjoy the wide-open spaces while the adjacent zoo provides additional entertainment. The peaceful atmosphere contrasts beautifully with the palace's playful trick fountains.

Notable

Kapuzinerberg

1-2 hours No Booking Needed

Map

A peaceful wooded hill on the right bank of the Salzach River, offering panoramic views and escape from tourist crowds. The moderate hiking paths wind through forest to various viewpoints overlooking the old town, fortress, and Alps beyond. At the summit sits the Capuchin Monastery with its small church, while the hillside features the Stations of the Cross, small chapels, and benches for contemplation. The Steingasse stairway provides dramatic ascent from the riverside. Local residents use these trails for morning jogs and evening walks. The different elevations offer varied photography perspectives of Salzburg's skyline. Especially beautiful during autumn foliage and less crowded than Mönchsberg.

Optional

Kurgarten

A tranquil spa garden in the new town featuring manicured lawns, mature trees, flower displays, and ornamental ponds. This elegant park provides a quiet retreat for reading, picnicking, or simply relaxing on benches beneath shade trees. The gardens include a small pavilion often hosting outdoor concerts during summer months. Children enjoy the playground areas while parents appreciate the peaceful atmosphere. The park connects to riverside walking paths along the Salzach. Less tourist-frequented than Mirabell Gardens, Kurgarten offers authentic local park life. Seasonal flower displays showcase horticultural artistry. The adjacent Kurhaus spa building adds architectural interest. Free admission and open daily from dawn to dusk.

Tips for Parks & Gardens

- Best visiting times: Early morning for peaceful atmosphere and better light for photography
- Seasonal highlights: Spring tulips, summer roses, autumn foliage each season offers unique beauty
- Picnic spots: Parks allow picnicking; purchase provisions at nearby markets or bakeries
- Footwear: Wear comfortable shoes for hill walks; paths can be steep and uneven
- Sunset viewing: Kapuzinerberg and Mönchsberg offer spectacular sunset views over the city

Neighborhoods & Districts

Salzburg's distinct districts each offer unique character, from the baroque splendor of the old town to charming riverside streets and modern cultural quarters. Exploring different neighborhoods reveals the city's layered history and contemporary vitality.

Must See

Altstadt (Old Town)

Half to full day No Booking Needed

Map

The UNESCO World Heritage historic center, a baroque architectural jewel compressed between Mönchsberg mountain and the Salzach River. This pedestrian-only maze of narrow lanes, elegant squares, and ornate townhouses represents one of Europe's best-preserved medieval city centers. Every corner reveals architectural treasures: wrought-iron signs, hidden courtyards, frescoed façades, and fountain-adorned squares. The Altstadt contains Salzburg's primary attractions including Mozart's birthplace, the Cathedral, Residenz Palace, and countless shops, restaurants, and cafés. The compact layout encourages wandering and discovery. Getreidegasse and parallel streets buzz with activity while quieter lanes offer peaceful exploration. Evening illumination enhances the romantic atmosphere.

Top Pick

Steingasse

A narrow, atmospheric medieval lane on the right bank that transports visitors back centuries with its authentic old-world charm. This cobblestoned street lined with tall, colorful houses was once the main route through Salzburg. Joseph Mohr, who wrote 'Silent Night,' was born here. The lane features historic inns, artisan workshops, cozy wine taverns, and the dramatic stairway ascending to Kapuzinerberg. Rock tunnels carved through the cliff face add mystery. Steingasse retains a more local, less touristy atmosphere than the left bank, with bohemian galleries, authentic restaurants, and residential character. The street's weathered facades and uneven paving stones evoke medieval Salzburg better than anywhere else in the city.

Top Pick

Neustadt (New Town)

Map

The lively right-bank district centered around Linzergasse and extending toward Mirabell Palace, offering a more relaxed, local alternative to the tourist-heavy old town. The 'new' town (actually centuries old) features excellent shopping on Linzergasse, diverse international restaurants, trendy cafés, and boutique accommodations. The neighborhood includes Mirabell Gardens, Mozart's Residence, and the picturesque Platzl square. Architecture ranges from baroque to art nouveau to contemporary. The Salzach riverside promenade provides scenic walking with fortress views. The area has authentic local life: neighborhood bakeries, butchers, bookshops, and residential streets where Salzburgers actually live. Better value dining and accommodation than the Altstadt while remaining highly walkable.

Notable

Kaiviertel (Artists' Quarter)

1-2 hours No Booking Needed

An emerging creative and alternative district along the Salzach's right bank, known for street art, independent galleries, craft breweries, and bohemian atmosphere. Once a working-class industrial area, Kaiviertel has transformed into Salzburg's hippest neighborhood. Explore converted warehouses hosting art studios, vintage shops, organic cafés, and cultural venues. The ARGE Kultur center presents contemporary performances and exhibitions. Colorful street murals adorn building walls. The Augustiner Bräu, one of Austria's finest beer halls, anchors the district. Summer brings outdoor events, pop-up markets, and riverside gathering. This neighborhood showcases contemporary Salzburg creativity contrasting with baroque tradition, attracting younger crowds and those seeking authentic local culture beyond tourist circuits.

Tips for Neighborhoods & Districts

- River crossings: Multiple bridges connect left and right banks each offers different architectural perspectives
- Local dining: Neustadt and Kaiviertel offer better value and more authentic experiences than Altstadt tourist restaurants
- Accommodation strategy: Staying in Neustadt provides quieter evenings while remaining within 10-minute walk of main attractions
- Evening exploration: Steingasse is magical after dark with atmospheric lighting and fewer crowds
- Shopping hours: Most shops close by 6-7pm on weekdays and Saturday afternoon; very limited Sunday opening

Tours & Activities

Salzburg offers diverse experiences beyond self-guided sightseeing, from Sound of Music tours to salt mine adventures and scenic cable car rides. These organized activities provide expert insights and access to special locations.

Top Pick Book Ahead

The Sound of Music Tour

4 hours Book Ahead

The iconic half-day bus tour visiting filming locations from the beloved 1965 musical, Salzburg's most popular organized activity. Professional guides share behind-the-scenes stories while transporting visitors to sites including Mirabell Gardens (Do-Re-Mi steps), Nonnberg Abbey, Leopoldskron Palace (lakeside mansion exterior), Hellbrunn Gardens (gazebo), Mondsee Church (wedding scene), and the picturesque Lake District landscapes. Tours typically include sing-along opportunities with the film's soundtrack. Available in multiple languages with various operators. While purists note historical liberties in the film, the tour provides excellent Salzburg region overview and spectacular alpine scenery. Essential for film fans; even skeptics enjoy the beautiful countryside. Book advance during peak season.

Top Pick

Untersberg Cable Car

3-4 hours No Booking Needed

A dramatic cable car ascent to Untersberg mountain's 1,776-meter summit, offering breathtaking alpine panoramas over Salzburg, Bavaria, and surrounding peaks. The modern gondola climbs 1,400 vertical meters in just 9 minutes, revealing increasingly spectacular views. At the summit, hiking trails range from easy walks to challenging mountain routes. The Geiereck viewpoint provides 360-degree vistas including distant Grossglockner. Mountain restaurants serve traditional Austrian fare. The summit area features fascinating karst geology and legends about Emperor Frederick Barbarossa sleeping within the mountain. Accessible year-round (weather permitting), the mountain offers summer hiking and winter wonderland experiences. Dress warmly temperatures significantly cooler than city level. Allow 2-3 hours minimum for ascent, exploration, and descent.

Notable

Salzburg Marionette Theatre

2-3 hours Book Ahead

A world-renowned puppet theater performing operas and theatrical productions with exquisitely crafted marionettes. Founded in 1913, the theater has achieved international acclaim for artistic excellence, presenting works by Mozart, Strauss, and other composers with remarkable sophistication. The handcrafted puppets, elaborate costumes, and detailed staging create magical performances transcending children's entertainment. The Magic Flute is signature production. The intimate theater seats 350 and provides excellent sightlines. English subtitles assist non-German speakers during performances. Behind-the-scenes tours reveal puppet-making workshops and archives. This unique cultural experience showcases Austrian theatrical tradition at its finest. Performances typically evening; advance booking essential especially summer and Christmas seasons.

Notable

Salzach River Cruise

40 minutes - 2 hours No Booking Needed

Various cruise options range from 40-minute city panorama tours to longer excursions toward the Lake District. Glide past the fortress-crowned old town, baroque church spires, Mönchsberg cliff face, and elegant riverside buildings while multilingual audio commentary explains history and landmarks. Some cruises offer dining options or sunset departures. The water-level viewpoint reveals architectural details invisible from streets. Dinner cruises combine sightseeing with regional cuisine. Operates seasonally April-October, weather dependent. Boarding points near Makartsteg bridge. Ideal for tired feet or travelers seeking relaxing sightseeing alternatives. Photography opportunities excellent from open decks.

Notable

Hangar-7 Red Bull Museum

1-2 hours No Booking Needed

An architectural marvel housing Red Bull's aircraft and Formula 1 collection in a stunning glass and steel hangar designed by Volkmar Burgstaller. The futuristic structure displays historic aircraft including fighter planes, helicopters, and Formula 1 racing cars in pristine condition. Aviation enthusiasts marvel at the Douglas DC-6B, Corsair fighter, and Flying Bulls collection. The building itself is an architectural achievement with its curved glass dome and elegant design. The on-site Ikarus Restaurant (Michelin-starred) offers gourmet dining beneath suspended aircraft. Regular temporary exhibitions explore flight, speed, and adventure themes. The adjacent Carpe Diem Lounge provides casual refreshments. Located near the airport, requiring taxi or bus. Free admission makes this surprising attraction excellent value.

Tips for Tours & Activities

- Advance booking: Popular tours (Sound of Music, concerts, marionette theater) sell out quickly in summer book weeks ahead
- Weather contingencies: Mountain cable cars and river cruises operate weather-dependent; have backup plans
- Combination tickets: Some operators offer package deals combining multiple attractions at discounted rates
- Group sizes: Smaller walking tours provide more personalized experiences than large bus tours
- Seasonal variations: Some activities operate seasonally check availability before planning itineraries

Day Trips & Excursions

Salzburg's strategic location provides easy access to stunning alpine landscapes, historic towns, and natural wonders. These day trips showcase the region's diverse attractions within 30-90 minutes of the city.

Must See

Hallstatt

Practical Information

Seasonal Guide to Salzburg

Spring (April-May): Delightful weather with blooming gardens, fewer crowds than summer, and Easter markets. Temperatures range 10-20°C. Perfect for outdoor exploration without peak season crowds. Some mountain attractions begin opening.

Summer (June-August): Peak tourist season with Salzburg Festival (late July-August) attracting culture enthusiasts worldwide. Warm weather (20-28°C) ideal for outdoor activities, but expect large crowds and highest prices. Book accommodations months ahead for festival period. Longest daylight hours enable extended sightseeing.

Autumn (September-October): Excellent visiting period with pleasant temperatures (12-18°C), beautiful foliage, harvest festivals, and reduced crowds. Clear alpine views and still-operational mountain attractions. Significantly better accommodation availability and value than summer.

Winter (November-March): Magical Christmas markets (late November-January), snow-dusted mountains, and festive atmosphere. Cold temperatures (-2 to 5°C) but charming winter experiences. January-February quietest period with lowest prices. Some attractions have reduced hours. Ideal for budget travelers and those seeking authentic local atmosphere without tourist masses.

Best Overall: Late May-June and September offer optimal weather, manageable crowds, and reasonable prices.

Getting Around Salzburg

✈ Airport Transfer

Salzburg Airport (W. A. Mozart Airport) located 4km west of city center. Connections: Both buses connect the airport with the city; line 10 takes about 15 minutes and line 2 about 23 minutes. A city ticket costs €3 on board or €2.50 in advance, taxis (€15-20, 10 minutes), or ride-sharing apps available. Munich Airport (120km) offers more international connections with shuttle buses to Salzburg.

Public Transportation

Trolleybuses and Buses: Extensive network covering entire city and suburbs. 2026 city fares are €3 for a ticket bought on board and €6.40 for a 24-hour ticket bought on board; advance/online fares are €2.50 and €5.20. Salzburg Card includes unlimited public transport. Validate tickets upon boarding. Services run 5:30am-11pm with night buses on weekends.

Walking: The compact old town is entirely pedestrianized and best explored on foot. Most major attractions within 20-minute walk. Comfortable shoes essential for cobblestones and hills.

Cycling

Extensive bike paths along both riverbanks and throughout city. Bike rentals from multiple locations (€15-20/day). Nextbike public bike-sharing system available via app.

Taxis & Ride-Sharing

Taxis readily available at stands (Residenzplatz, train station, airport). Meter fares start €4-5 plus €1.50-2/km. Uber and Bolt operate in Salzburg.

Car Rental

Available at airport and train station. Not recommended for city sightseeing due to pedestrian zones, limited parking, and traffic restrictions. Useful for day trips to surrounding regions. Parking garages charge €2-3/hour.

Horse-Drawn Carriages (Fiaker)

Traditional carriages at Residenzplatz offer romantic city tours (€50-80 for 20-40 minutes). Prearrange pricing before departure.

Shopping in Salzburg

What to Buy

Traditional Items: Dirndl and Lederhosen (traditional Austrian dress), Loden wool clothing, Austrian crystal (Swarovski), handcrafted ceramics, Christmas decorations, alpine hats with feathers, and edelweiss jewelry.

Food & Drink: Mozartkugel chocolates (original from Café Fürst), alpine liqueurs and schnapps, pumpkin seed oil, Austrian wines, Manner wafers, and regional honey.

Mozart Memorabilia: Classical music recordings, replica manuscripts, themed souvenirs. Authentic items available at Mozart museums rather than tourist shops.

Shopping Areas

Getreidegasse: Premier shopping street combining international brands, traditional Austrian shops, and souvenir stores in historic setting.

Alter Markt & Judengasse: Antiques, jewelry, and upscale boutiques in charming old town locations.

Linzergasse: More affordable alternative with local shops, drugstores, and everyday services.

Europark Shopping Center: Modern mall (5km from center) with 130 stores including international chains. Bus #1, #5 accessible.

Markets

Grünmarkt (Green Market): Daily Monday-Saturday at Universitätsplatz featuring fresh produce, flowers, regional cheeses, baked goods, and artisan products. Atmospheric and authentic.

The Schrannenmarkt is a weekly outdoor market by St. Andrä Church, held on Thursdays (or Wednesday when Thursday is a public holiday).

Christmas Markets: Multiple locations (Residenzplatz, Mirabellplatz, Hellbrunn) late November-early January with traditional crafts, ornaments, hot punch, and festive atmosphere.

Tips

- Hours: Shops generally open 9am-6pm Monday-Friday, until 5pm Saturday. Most closed Sundays except railway station shops
- VAT Refund: Non-EU visitors can reclaim tax on purchases over €75 obtain forms at stores
- Bargaining: Not customary except at flea markets
- Authentic Mozartkugel: Original recipe from Café-Konditorei Fürst (blue/silver wrapper) differs from mass-produced versions
