Things to do in Bath

Landmarks & Monuments

Bath's most iconic architectural masterpieces, showcasing Georgian sophistication and historic significance.

Must See

Royal Crescent

1-2 hours No Booking Needed

Map

A spectacular horseshoe-shaped row of 30 Georgian townhouses, designed by John Wood the Younger and completed in 1774. This iconic crescent is one of the finest examples of Georgian architecture in Britain. No. 1 Royal Crescent is open as a museum showcasing period furnishings and life in Georgian Bath.

Must See

The Circus

45 minutes No Booking Needed

Map

A masterpiece of circular Georgian design featuring three curved rows of townhouses forming a complete circle. Built between 1754-1768, this architectural marvel is considered one of Britain's finest examples of urban design, with intricate stonework and decorative details.

Must See

Pulteney Bridge

30 minutes No Booking Needed

Map

An iconic 18th-century arched stone bridge spanning the River Avon, completed in 1774; Visit Bath describes it as inspired by the Ponte Vecchio. Featuring shops on both sides, it's one of only four bridges in the world with buildings covering its entire length, making it a unique architectural gem.

Tips for Landmarks & Monuments

- Visit at dawn or dusk for the best photography of the golden-hued stone
- The best view of Royal Crescent is from Royal Victoria Park
- Walk along Brock Street to see the transition from Circus to Royal Crescent

Ancient & Historical Sites

Experience Bath's remarkable Roman heritage and medieval structures spanning nearly 2,000 years of history.

Must See

Roman Baths

2-3 hours No Booking Needed

Map

One of the finest surviving examples of Roman architecture and engineering in northern Europe. Built around the natural hot spring known as the Great Bath, this complex reveals how the Romans enjoyed bathing around 2,000 years ago. Walk through authentic remains including the steaming sacred spring, perfectly preserved lead-lined baths, and sophisticated underground chambers. UNESCO World Heritage Site.

Must See

Bath Abbey

1-2 hours No Booking Needed

Map

A stunning Late Perpendicular Gothic church dominating the Abbey Churchyard, built between 1499-1616. Known for its magnificent fan vaulting, intricate stone carvings, and dramatic West Front depicting angels climbing to heaven. The abbey sits directly above the Roman Baths' sacred spring. Climb the Tower for panoramic city views.

Top Pick

Parade Gardens

1 hour No Booking Needed

Map

The city's oldest public garden, originally called the Grove, redesigned in 1892. This riverside oasis features herbaceous borders, ornamental fountains, and peaceful walkways along the River Avon. A perfect spot for relaxation with views of Pulteney Bridge and the surrounding Georgian terraces.

Tips for Ancient & Historical Sites

- The Roman Baths museum includes a fascinating audio guide and interactive exhibits
- Book Abbey Tower tickets separately for the climb—rewards with 360° views
- Best time to visit the Baths: early morning or late afternoon to avoid crowds

Museums & Galleries

Explore Bath's rich cultural institutions housing everything from Roman artifacts to contemporary art.

Top Pick

Building of Bath Museum

1-1.5 hours No Booking Needed

Map

Dedicated to understanding Bath's unique architectural heritage and the Georgian building boom that shaped the city. Located in the Countess of Huntingdon's Chapel, exhibits reveal the stories of architects, builders, and residents who created Bath's iconic streetscapes and the technical innovations behind their construction.

Top Pick

Holburne Museum

1.5-2 hours No Booking Needed

Map

A sophisticated art museum in a Grade I listed building near Sydney Gardens, housing an impressive collection of Old Master paintings, decorative arts, and contemporary pieces. Features works by Turner, Gainsborough, and other renowned artists in elegant Georgian gallery spaces.

Notable

Sally Lunn's Historic House Museum

1 hour No Booking Needed

Map

One of Bath's oldest houses (dating to the 15th century), now a quirky museum and café celebrating the legendary 17th-century pastry cook Sally Lunn. Explore the Roman, Saxon, and Medieval periods through the building's layered history while enjoying traditional Sally Lunn buns (sweet, brioche-like pastries) in the intimate tea room.

Tips for Museums & Galleries

- Many museums offer combined tickets—check individual websites for discounts
- Sally Lunn's can get very busy at weekends; visit mid-week

Parks & Gardens

Discover Bath's verdant green spaces, from formal Georgian gardens to wild nature reserves.

Must See

Royal Victoria Park

1.5-2 hours No Booking Needed

Map

Bath's largest public park, opened in 1830 and named after Princess Victoria. Spanning 57 acres, it offers panoramic views of Bath from the upper terrace, botanical gardens, a lake, and open meadows. The botanical garden features rare plants and exotic species in carefully curated beds with interpretive signage.

Top Pick

Prior Park Landscape Garden

2-3 hours No Booking Needed

Map

An 18th-century landscape garden created by Ralph Allen, with advice from Capability Brown and Alexander Pope; Brown’s precise contribution is uncertain, featuring a stunning 18-acre estate with naturalistic gardens, woodland walks, and the iconic Palladian Bridge. Offers breathtaking views across Bath with secluded valleys and a historic Gothic temple. Managed by the National Trust.

Top Pick

Sydney Gardens

1-1.5 hours No Booking Needed

Map

An elegant Georgian pleasure garden crossed by the Kennet and Avon Canal, originally opened as a toll garden in 1795. Features manicured lawns, ornamental borders, a fernery, and tree-lined walks. The canal path extends north through scenic countryside—perfect for walks and cycling.

Tips for Parks & Gardens

- Royal Victoria Park offers the best city views; go at sunset for spectacular light
- Prior Park is on a hill—wear comfortable walking shoes
- Sydney Gardens are ideal for picnicking and casual strolling

Tours & Activities

Experience Bath through guided explorations, wellness experiences, and interactive activities.

Top Pick Book Ahead

Thermal Bath Spa

2-4 hours Book Ahead

Britain's only spa with naturally heated mineral waters, combining modern wellness facilities with historic bathing traditions. The rooftop pool offers stunning views of Bath's Georgian skyline while you bathe in naturally warm, mineral-rich waters. Spa treatments include traditional rituals and contemporary therapies in a sustainable, LEED-certified building.

Top Pick Book Ahead

Ghost Tour of Bath

1.5-2 hours Book Ahead

Evening walking tour exploring Bath's dark history, haunted locations, and mysterious tales. Professional guides lead you through atmospheric Georgian streets, revealing stories of famous residents, scandals, and supernatural encounters. Tours depart nightly from various locations and last approximately 1.5-2 hours.

Top Pick

Jane Austen Centre

1-1.5 hours No Booking Needed

Dedicated to the life and works of Jane Austen, who lived in Bath from 1801-1806. Explore authentic Regency rooms, period costumes, and interactive exhibits revealing how Bath influenced her novels. The centre showcases her correspondence and manuscripts in elegant Georgian townhouse settings.

Tips for Tours & Activities

- Book Thermal Bath Spa in advance, especially for rooftop pool time
- Ghost tours are atmospheric and entertaining; wear comfortable walking shoes
- Jane Austen fans should visit her house location on Sydney Place

Shopping & Markets

Discover Bath's diverse shopping districts, traditional British cuisine, and culinary experiences.

Top Pick

Milsom Street & Stall Street

1.5-2 hours No Booking Needed

Map

Bath's principal shopping streets lined with independent boutiques, designer shops, and international brands housed in elegant Georgian buildings. Stall Street connects directly to the Roman Baths and Abbey Churchyard. Explore hidden arcades and courtyards featuring artisan shops, galleries, and cafés.

Top Pick

Bath Christmas Market

1-2 hours No Booking Needed

Map

Annual festive market (November-December) in Abbey Churchyard featuring traditional German-style chalets selling crafts, gifts, food, and mulled wine. The magical setting among Bath's historical landmarks creates an enchanting atmosphere, with ice skating rink and daily entertainment.

Tips for Shopping & Markets

- Milsom Street has excellent independent bookstores and homeware shops
- Many Georgian terraces hide charming courtyards with quiet shops and cafés
- Christmas Market is best visited on weekdays to avoid crowds

Day Trips & Excursions

Explore fascinating destinations within easy reach of Bath, from Stonehenge to charming English villages.

Must See Book Ahead

Stonehenge

3-4 hours Book Ahead

Map

Prehistoric monument near Amesbury, about 35 miles south-east of Bath (most visitors go by tour or car, about 1.5 hours). This UNESCO World Heritage Site features massive standing stones arranged in concentric circles, constructed around 3000 BC. Visitor centre includes interactive exhibits explaining theories about its construction and purpose. Book tickets online in advance.

Top Pick

Lacock Village

Map

Picture-perfect 13th-century village (20 minutes from Bath) with cobbled streets, timber-framed cottages, and unchanged architecture. Home to Lacock Abbey, a National Trust property and former nunnery featuring Gothic cloisters and beautiful grounds. The village is a favourite filming location for period dramas including 'Pride and Prejudice' and 'Harry Potter'.

Top Pick

Glastonbury

3-4 hours No Booking Needed

Map

Mystical town (30 minutes south) dominated by Glastonbury Tor, a distinctive hill with a ruined tower commanding panoramic views across Somerset. The town combines historical significance (believed by some to be the legendary Avalon) with spiritual culture, featuring alternative shops, cafés, and the ruins of Glastonbury Abbey where King Arthur allegedly rested.

Tips for Day Trips & Excursions

- Stonehenge: book tickets in advance; early morning visits are less crowded
- Lacock: visit off-season to avoid tour groups; parking is limited
- Glastonbury Tor: wear sturdy shoes for the steep 50-minute climb to the summit

Practical Information

Best Time to Visit

Spring (April-May): Mild temperatures, blooming flowers in Victoria Park, fewer crowds, perfect weather for walking tours and museum visits.

Summer (June-August): Warmest months but busiest season. Street performers, outdoor cinema, and evening concerts. Book accommodations and attractions well in advance.

Autumn (September-October): Golden light ideal for photography, comfortable walking weather, and excellent for visiting gardens as trees change colour.

Winter (November-February): Festive Christmas Market (Nov-Dec), quieter atmosphere, some attractions have reduced hours. Cold but magical for capturing Bath's Georgian architecture in winter light.

Tip: October and early November offer ideal conditions—pleasant weather, smaller crowds, and autumn beauty.

Getting Around Bath

On Foot: Bath's compact city centre is highly walkable. Most major attractions are within 15-20 minutes on foot from each other. Wear comfortable walking shoes due to frequent hills and cobblestone streets.

Public Transport: Local buses (First Bus network) serve the entire city with frequent service. Single journey tickets or day passes available. Buses are the best option for reaching outer attractions like Prior Park.

Train Station: The Roman Baths are a 5–10 minute walk from Bath Spa rail and bus station. (1.5 hours) and Bristol Temple Meads (15 minutes).

Airport: Bristol Airport (20 miles west, 45 minutes by bus or hire car) is the nearest major airport with international flights.

Taxis & Ride-Sharing: Licensed black cabs available throughout the city. Uber operates in Bath but can be more expensive during peak times.

Cycling: Bath has dedicated cycling routes and relatively flat central areas. Bike rentals available from several companies. The canal path to Bradford-on-Avon (8 miles) is scenic.

✈ Airport Transfer

Bristol Airport (BRS) to city center:

- Airport Flyer bus + train: The direct A4 bus runs from Bristol Airport to Bath; check current fares and times with the operator.
- The A4 Air Decker runs directly between Bristol Airport and Bath, hourly; an adult single is £9.50.
- Taxi: Direct transfer to central Bath in around 45 minutes, fixed rate approximately £55-65
- Private transfer: Pre-booked door to door car service taking about 45 minutes, typically £70-90 depending on vehicle size

Shopping & Souvenirs

What to Buy: Georgian and Regency-inspired jewellery, Jane Austen merchandise, locally-made Bath Bombs, traditional Sally Lunn buns, antique books, and regional cider.

Shopping Districts: Milsom Street and Stall Street for high street brands and independents; Walcot Street for quirky vintage and antique shops; The Podium for modern shopping. Underground arcades on High Street feature independent jewellers, bookshops, and gift retailers.

Markets: Bath Christmas Market (November-December) in Abbey Churchyard; regular farmers markets in the city centre (Wednesdays and Saturdays); antique markets at various locations throughout the year.

Opening Hours: Most shops open 9am-6pm Monday-Saturday; many stay open until 8pm on Thursdays. Sunday hours are typically 10am-4pm.

Bargaining: Not customary in shops. Antique markets may allow negotiation on multiple items.

Annual Events & Festivals

The 2026 Bath Literature Festival ran 16–24 May: International writers, talks, and book celebrations across venue throughout the city.

Bath Comedy Festival (April): Stand-up comedy, improv shows, and sketch performances at various venues.

Bath Fringe Festival (June): Two weeks of theatre, music, and performance art in independent venues and unusual locations.

Jane Austen Festival (September): Regency costume balls, readings, walks, and celebrations of the author. Locals dress in period clothing.

The 2026 market runs 26 November–13 December; Bath on Ice is a separate event at Royal Victoria Park.

Georgian Festival (June, annual): Historic reenactments, period fashion shows, and celebrations of Bath's Golden Age.

Bath Skyline Walk Festival (September): Guided walks exploring Bath's architectural and natural heritage.

Sample Day Itineraries

Day 1: Roman & Medieval Bath (Full Day)

Best Photography Locations

Royal Crescent at Dawn: Photograph the elegant curve of townhouses in soft morning light. Best viewed from Royal Victoria Park (5-minute walk). Golden hour light creates stunning shadows on the honey-coloured stone (6-7am in summer, 7-8am in winter).

Pulteney Bridge at Sunset: Capture the bridge spanning the River Avon with the abbey in the background. Best from the bridge itself or the riverbank. Photograph 8-9pm in summer, 5-6pm in winter.

The Circus from Above: Aerial perspective of the circular Georgian perfection. Best viewed from the upper windows of nearby townhouses or from street level during golden hour.

Bath Abbey at Night: Beautifully illuminated Gothic facade against darkening sky. Shoot from Abbey Churchyard around 8-9pm (summer) or 5-6pm (winter).

Parade Gardens with Pulteney Bridge Reflection: Capture the bridge reflected in the river with herbaceous borders in foreground. Best in spring (blooming flowers) or autumn (golden foliage). Morning light (7-8am) or late afternoon (5-6pm).

Royal Victoria Park Panorama: Sweeping views of Bath's skyline from the terrace. Clear days offer distant views to the Cotswolds. Best at sunrise (6-7am) or sunset (8-9pm in summer).

Street-Level Georgian Details: Close-ups of ornate doorways, windows, railings, and stonework throughout the city. Rain-washed stone shows texture and detail beautifully. Overcast days provide even lighting without harsh shadows.

Avon Riverside Path: Walk the river path north toward Sydney Gardens for green landscapes, water reflections, and the Palladian Bridge view from across the water. Morning light ideal for reflections.

Electricity & Power

Voltage: United Kingdom operates on 230V, 50Hz electricity supply.

Plug Types: British Standard G plugs (three rectangular pins) are standard. All electrical outlets use this format.

Adapter Required: Visitors from other countries will need a UK plug adapter. Most hotels provide standard adaptors at no cost, but bringing your own is advisable. Universal adapters (multi-plug) are available for purchase at airports and electronics shops.

Device Compatibility: Most modern electronics (phones, tablets, laptops) accept 100-240V input and only require a plug adapter. Check your device charger for voltage specifications if uncertain.

Shopping for Adapters: Bath has no airport; Bristol Airport is the nearest airport mentioned in this guide, electronics shops (Currys, John Lewis), supermarkets (Tesco, Sainsbury's), and pound shops throughout the city.

USB Charging: Many cafés, restaurants, and hotels offer USB charging ports. Modern hotels typically include USB outlets in guest rooms alongside standard wall sockets.

Food & Dining

Must-Try Dishes: Bath Bun (sweet, spiced bread with sugar topping—try Sally Lunn's Historic House). Cornish Pasty (portable meat and vegetable pastry). Fish and Chips (classic British comfort food, served with malt vinegar). Sunday Roast (traditional roasted meat with Yorkshire pudding and vegetables). Sticky Toffee Pudding (warm sponge cake with toffee sauce).

Local Specialties: West Country cream tea (Devonshire clotted cream and jam on scones). Local cider (award-winning producers from Somerset). British ales and bitters from regional breweries.

Dining Tips: Restaurants open for lunch 12-2:30pm and dinner 6:30-10pm. Booking recommended for evening meals, especially weekends. Casual dress acceptable at most venues except fine dining. Service charge (10-15%) often added automatically; check bill. Tipping not required but appreciated (round to nearest pound or 10% discretionary).

Budget Options: Fish and chip shops, pub food, market vendors, and ethnic restaurants (Indian, Chinese, Thai, Italian) offer good value. Supermarket meal deals available at Tesco, Sainsbury's, and Marks & Spencer.

Fine Dining: The Pump Room (Georgian elegance with formal dining), The Scallop Shell (seafood specialist), Marlborough Tavern (elevated pub cuisine).

Dietary Requirements: Most restaurants accommodate vegetarian, vegan, and gluten-free diets. Indian restaurants particularly excellent for vegan options. Always ask staff about specific allergies.
