Things to do in Miami

Beaches & Coastal Areas

Miami's coastline features pristine white-sand beaches and crystal-clear waters. From the iconic South Beach to hidden gems like Virginia Key, experience the ultimate beach lifestyle with water sports, beachfront dining, and spectacular sunsets.

Must See

South Beach

3-4 hours No Booking Needed

Map

The most iconic beach in Miami, famous for its Art Deco architecture, colorful lifeguard stands, and energetic atmosphere. The Ocean Drive area buzzes with restaurants, bars, and people from around the world. White sand stretches for miles with calm, warm waters perfect for swimming. Best visited early morning for fewer crowds or sunset for stunning views. The beach is free to access with public facilities available.

Top Pick

Miami Beach Boardwalk

1-2 hours No Booking Needed

Map

A scenic 4-mile paved path connecting South Beach to Mid-Beach, perfect for walking, jogging, or cycling. Enjoy panoramic ocean views, access points to various beaches, and outdoor fitness equipment. The boardwalk features benches, showers, and is beautifully landscaped with native plants. Popular for sunrise walks and evening strolls, offering a more relaxed beach experience than the main beach areas.

Top Pick

Bayside Marketplace

2-3 hours No Booking Needed

Map

A vibrant open-air shopping and entertainment complex on Biscayne Bay. Features over 150 shops, restaurants, and bars with live music daily. Take boat tours to Millionaire's Row to see celebrity homes, or enjoy waterfront dining with skyline views. The marketplace hosts cultural events and festivals throughout the year. Free admission with plenty of dining options from casual to upscale.

Notable

Crandon Park Beach

4-5 hours No Booking Needed

Map

Located on Key Biscayne, this beach offers calmer waters and a more family-friendly atmosphere than South Beach. Features 2 miles of pristine coastline with shallow waters, picnic areas, and nature trails. The park includes cabana rentals, a vintage carousel, and outdoor showers. Consistently rated among America's top beaches with excellent facilities and lifeguards. Small parking fee required.

Tips for Beaches & Coastal Areas

- Parking: Arrive early (before 10am) for beach parking, especially on weekends
- Safety: Always swim near lifeguard stations and check flag warnings
- Sun protection: Bring high SPF sunscreen, umbrellas, and stay hydrated
- Beach gear: Rent chairs and umbrellas on-site ($15-25) or bring your own
- Best time: Visit November-April for perfect weather and calmer seas

Art Deco & Architecture

Miami Beach boasts the world's largest collection of Art Deco architecture, with over 800 preserved buildings from the 1920s-1940s. The pastel-colored facades and geometric designs create a unique visual landscape that defines Miami's aesthetic identity.

Must See

Art Deco Historic District

2-3 hours No Booking Needed

Map

The first 20th-century neighborhood listed on the National Register of Historic Places. Spanning roughly one square mile, this district contains the world's largest concentration of Art Deco architecture. Stroll along Ocean Drive, Collins Avenue, and Washington Avenue to see iconic buildings like The Colony Hotel, Carlyle, and Breakwater. The colorful facades feature neon lights, porthole windows, and nautical themes. Free to explore on foot, best experienced during golden hour for photography.

Must See

Ocean Drive

1-2 hours No Booking Needed

Map

The most photographed street in Miami, lined with pastel Art Deco hotels, sidewalk cafes, and classic cars. This iconic thoroughfare runs parallel to South Beach and is the heart of the Art Deco District. Best experienced by walking, stopping at cafes for people-watching and mojitos. The street comes alive at night with neon lights and vibrant nightlife. Free to explore, though dining can be pricey and touristy.

Must See

Little Havana

Map

The heart of Miami's Cuban community, where Spanish is the primary language and salsa music fills the air. Calle Ocho (8th Street) is the main thoroughfare lined with cigar shops, cafeterias serving Cuban coffee, and domino parks. Watch cigars being hand-rolled, taste authentic Cuban sandwiches, and experience live music at Ball & Chain. Visit Maximo Gomez Park to see locals playing dominoes. The neighborhood hosts the massive Calle Ocho Festival each March. Free to explore.

Top Pick

Wynwood Arts District

3-4 hours No Booking Needed

Map

Miami's trendiest neighborhood, transformed from warehouses into an arts haven. Beyond the famous Walls, explore dozens of galleries, street art, craft breweries, and hip restaurants. The area explodes with activity during Second Saturday art walks. Visit breweries like Wynwood Brewing Company, dine at innovative eateries, and shop at boutiques. The district has a young, creative vibe with Instagram-worthy murals around every corner. Safe during the day; exercise caution at night in less-trafficked areas.

Notable

Design District

2-3 hours No Booking Needed

Map

An upscale neighborhood featuring luxury fashion boutiques, contemporary art galleries, and fine dining. Home to flagship stores of Dior, Gucci, Louis Vuitton, and other high-end brands in architecturally stunning buildings. The district also hosts the Institute of Contemporary Art (free admission) and public art installations. Palm-lined streets create an elegant atmosphere perfect for window shopping and dining. Parking validation available at many stores. Less crowded than Lincoln Road with a more sophisticated vibe.

Notable

Coconut Grove

Map

Miami's oldest neighborhood, known for its bohemian atmosphere, tree-lined streets, and waterfront location. Features CocoWalk shopping center, the historic Barnacle State Park, and numerous sidewalk cafes. The area has a laid-back, village-like feel with art festivals, outdoor dining, and sailing culture. Visit the Vizcaya Museum nearby or enjoy the farmers market on Saturdays. Popular with families and those seeking a more relaxed Miami experience away from the beach crowds.

Tips for Neighborhoods & Districts

- Little Havana: Visit Friday evenings for Viernes Culturales, a monthly street festival
- Language: Basic Spanish phrases helpful in Little Havana
- Walking tours: Consider guided tours to learn neighborhood history and hidden spots

- Parking: Street parking can be challenging; use public lots or ride-share services
- Safety: Neighborhoods are generally safe during the day; stay in well-lit areas at night

Parks & Gardens

Despite being a urban metropolis, Miami offers abundant natural beauty from tropical gardens to mangrove wetlands. The Everglades ecosystem begins just outside the city, providing unique wildlife viewing opportunities.

Practical Information

Optimal Travel Seasons

Peak Season (December-April): The most popular time with perfect weather - temperatures between 70-80°F (21-27°C), low humidity, and minimal rainfall. Expect higher prices and crowded beaches. Book accommodations well in advance. This is when Miami truly shines with outdoor festivals and events.

Shoulder Season (May & November): Excellent value with good weather, fewer crowds, and lower hotel rates. May can be warm and humid, while November offers comfortable temperatures. Best time for budget travelers seeking deals without sacrificing weather quality.

Summer (June-October): Hot, humid, and rainy with temperatures averaging 85-90°F (29-32°C). This is hurricane season with afternoon thunderstorms common. Significant hotel discounts available (50%+ off peak rates). Best for travelers who don't mind heat and want to experience local life without tourist crowds.

Month	Avg High	Avg Low	Rainfall	Crowd Level
January	76°F	63°F	2.0"	High
April	83°F	71°F	3.1"	High
July	91°F	77°F	6.5"	Low
October	86°F	75°F	6.2"	Medium

Special Events: Art Basel (December), For 2026, Miami Music Week ran March 24–29; dates vary by year, South Beach Wine & Food Festival (February), Miami International Film Festival (March).

Getting Around Miami

From the Airport (MIA): Located 8 miles from downtown. Options include rental cars ($40-80/day), taxis ($25-35 to South Beach), ride-share services ($20-30), SuperShuttle shared vans ($22), and the Route 150 to Miami Beach costs $2.25 each way; check the current schedule for departure times.

Public Transportation:

- Metrorail: Elevated train system serving downtown, airport, and suburbs. Single ride $2.25, day pass $5.65. Limited coverage of tourist areas.
- Metromover: Free automated trains circling downtown Miami - excellent for exploring the business district and Brickell.
- Metrobus: Extensive bus network ($2.25 per ride). South Beach Local routes convenient for beach areas.
- Miami Beach Trolley: Free trolley service with multiple routes covering South Beach, Mid-Beach, and North Beach. Runs every 15-20 minutes.

Ride-Share & Taxis: Uber and Lyft widely available throughout Miami. Taxis require metered fares. Expected costs: South Beach to Wynwood ($12-18), South Beach to Downtown ($15-22), Downtown to Little Havana ($10-15).

Rental Cars: Recommended for visiting multiple neighborhoods and attractions. Parking in South Beach is challenging and expensive ($3-4/hour, $20-40/day in lots). Most hotels charge $30-50/night for parking.

Bicycles & Scooters: Citi Bike stations throughout Miami Beach and downtown ($4.50 for 30 minutes, $24 day pass). Electric scooters from Lime and Bird available. Dedicated bike lanes on many major streets.

Miami Beach's city water taxi between downtown Miami and Miami Beach is free; check its schedule and operating days.

Pro Tip: South Beach is very walkable - consider staying there and using public transit/ride-shares for other neighborhoods to avoid parking hassles.

✈ Airport Transfer

Miami International Airport (MIA) to city center:

- The MIA Mover connects to the Miami Intermodal Center; Metrorail fare is $2.25. Allow extra time for the ride and transfers.
- Shared Shuttle Van: Door-to-door shared shuttle to South Beach or downtown takes 45 to 60 minutes and costs around 22 dollars per person
- Taxi: Metered taxi with flat zone rates runs about 22 dollars to downtown or 35 dollars to South Beach in roughly 25 to 40 minutes
- Private Transfer: Pre-booked private car or SUV to any hotel takes about 30 minutes and costs between 70 and 95 dollars

Shopping in Miami

What to Buy:

- Cuban cigars: Hand-rolled cigars from Little Havana shops (Note: Authentic Cuban cigars from Cuba remain restricted for US residents)
- Latin American goods: Coffee, spices, guava pastries, tropical preserves
- Art: Original works from Wynwood galleries, street art prints
- Beachwear & Fashion: Resort wear, swimsuits, Latin-inspired fashion
- Jewelry: Locally designed pieces, especially in Design District
- Miami-themed souvenirs: Art Deco prints, tropical homeware

Best Shopping Areas:

- Lincoln Road Mall: Mix of mainstream and boutique shopping in pedestrian environment
- Design District: Luxury brands, high-end galleries, contemporary furniture
- Aventura Mall: Comprehensive mall with department stores and luxury wing
- Dolphin Mall: Outlet shopping for discounted designer brands
- Wynwood: Art galleries, vintage shops, unique boutiques
- Bayside Marketplace: Tourist-oriented shops with waterfront location

Bargaining Tips: Haggling is not customary in stores or malls. Acceptable at outdoor markets, flea markets, and some art galleries. Always polite and reasonable. Many stores offer price matching.

Tax Information: Florida sales tax is 7% (6% state + 1% county). International visitors can obtain tax refunds at participating stores - ask for tax-free forms and present passport. Refund processed at special booths in major malls or at the airport.

Store Hours: Most malls open 10am-9pm Monday-Saturday, 11am-7pm Sunday. Independent boutiques vary, typically 11am-7pm. Some South Beach shops stay open until 11pm or midnight.

Annual Events & Festivals

Major Events:

- Art Basel Miami Beach (December): World's premier contemporary art fair attracting collectors, artists, and celebrities. Week-long parties, gallery exhibitions, and cultural events throughout the city.
- For 2026, Miami Music Week ran March 24–29; dates vary by year: Electronic music festival with Ultra Music Festival as centerpiece. Pool parties, club events, and beach performances city-wide.
- South Beach Wine & Food Festival (February): Celebrity chef demonstrations, tastings, and parties. Benefiting Florida International University's hospitality program.
- Miami International Film Festival (March): Showcasing independent and foreign films with focus on Ibero-American cinema.
- Calle Ocho Festival (March): Massive street festival in Little Havana celebrating Latin culture with food, music, and dancing. Over 1 million attendees.
- The 2026 tournament ran March 15–29 at Hard Rock Stadium; check the official calendar for future dates.
- Art Deco Weekend (January): Celebration of Miami Beach's architectural heritage with tours, concerts, classic car displays, and period fashion.
- Miami Carnival (October): Caribbean culture celebration with colorful costumes, steel drums, and parade through downtown.
- King Mango Strut (December): Quirky parade in Coconut Grove satirizing year's events - Miami's alternative to conventional parades.

National Holidays: New Year's Day, Martin Luther King Jr. Day (3rd Monday Jan), Presidents' Day (3rd Monday Feb), Memorial Day (last Monday May), Independence Day (July 4), Labor Day (1st Monday Sept), Thanksgiving (4th Thursday Nov), Christmas (Dec 25). Expect closures and traffic during holiday weekends.

Note: Book accommodations months in advance during major events. Prices increase significantly, especially during Art Basel and Miami Music Week.

5 Sample Day Itineraries

Day 1: South Beach Classic

Morning (8am-12pm): Start with breakfast at The Front Porch Cafe on Ocean Drive. Walk the Art Deco Historic District, taking photos of iconic buildings. Visit the Art Deco Museum and MDPL offers a daily 10:30 a.m. tour, but check current booking details and price before planning around it. Stroll along South Beach, rent a chair and umbrella.

Afternoon (12pm-5pm): Lunch at a beachfront restaurant. Continue beach time or walk the Miami Beach Boardwalk. Explore Lincoln Road Mall for shopping and people-watching. Stop for Cuban coffee at a local cafe.

Evening (5pm-late): Return to hotel to freshen up. Dinner at Joe's Stone Crab (seasonal) or Italian at Osteria del Teatro. Evening stroll on Ocean Drive watching the neon lights. Drinks at a rooftop bar or experience South Beach nightlife.

Day 2: Art & Culture

Morning (9am-1pm): Breakfast in Wynwood at Zak the Baker. Explore Wynwood Walls requires paid admission; much of the surrounding neighborhood’s street art can be viewed outdoors. Browse galleries during a self-guided walk. Visit Wynwood Brewing Company for craft beer tasting.

Afternoon (1pm-6pm): Lunch at KYU or another Wynwood restaurant. Drive to the Design District to see luxury boutiques and public art. Visit the Institute of Contemporary Art (free admission). Explore the Pérez Art Museum Miami (PAMM) with bayfront views.

Evening (6pm-late): Dinner in the Design District at Michael's Genuine or Mandolin Aegean Bistro. Attend a performance at the Adrienne Arsht Center or return to Wynwood for nightlife.

Day 3: Little Havana & Coconut Grove

Morning (9am-1pm): Drive to Little Havana. Breakfast at Versailles Restaurant - iconic Cuban diner. Walk Calle Ocho, stopping at cigar shops and watching cigars being hand-rolled. Visit Domino Park to see locals playing. Tour the Bay of Pigs Museum. Sample Cuban coffee at a ventanita (window cafe).

Afternoon (1pm-5pm): Lunch at El Exquisito or El Rey de las Fritas. Drive to Coconut Grove. Visit Vizcaya Museum & Gardens (allow 2-3 hours). Walk around CocoWalk and the village center.

Evening (5pm-late): Dinner at Lulu or waterfront restaurant. Explore the Grove's relaxed nightlife or attend a concert at Bayfront Park if available.

Day 4: Nature & Everglades Adventure

Morning (7am-12pm): Early departure to Everglades National Park (45-minute drive). Stop at visitor center for maps and information. Airboat tours are operated outside much of Everglades National Park; check the operator’s location and whether the tour enters park waters. ($30-50). Walk the Anhinga Trail boardwalk for guaranteed alligator sightings. Consider cycling or tram tour at Shark Valley.

Afternoon (12pm-5pm): Pack a picnic lunch or eat at nearby restaurants in Homestead. Optional: Continue to Biscayne National Park for snorkeling tour (advance booking required) OR return to Miami for Fairchild Tropical Botanic Garden.

Evening (5pm-late): Return to Miami Beach. Relaxed dinner at a local favorite. Evening beach walk and early rest after active day.

Day 5: Water Activities & Relaxation

Morning (9am-1pm): Breakfast at hotel or local cafe. Book a Biscayne Bay boat tour from Bayside Marketplace ($30-40, 90 minutes). View celebrity homes and Miami skyline from the water. Stop at Bayside for shopping.

Afternoon (1pm-5pm): Lunch at Garcia's Seafood or Bayside restaurant. Choose activity: jet ski rental, paddleboard at Oleta River State Park, or visit Fairchild Tropical Botanic Garden. Alternative: Spa afternoon and pool time at hotel.

Evening (5pm-late): Sunset dinner cruise or waterfront restaurant. Final evening exploring favorite neighborhood. Pack and prepare for departure, or experience one last South Beach night out.

Customization Tips: These itineraries can be mixed and matched based on interests. Allow flexibility for weather. Book water activities and tours in advance. Consider purchasing tourist passes for multiple attractions.

Best Instagram & Photography Locations

- Wynwood Walls: Massive colorful murals perfect for portraits. Best time: Morning (9-11am) for soft light and fewer crowds. Arrive early before tour groups.
- South Beach Lifeguard Stands: Iconic colorful towers against ocean backdrop. Best time: Sunrise (6:30-7:30am) for golden light and empty beaches, or late afternoon for dramatic shadows.
- Ocean Drive Art Deco Buildings: Classic Miami Beach architecture. Best time: Blue hour (just after sunset) when neon signs illuminate. The Colony Hotel and Carlyle are most photographed.
- Pérez Art Museum's Hanging Gardens: Lush tropical plants cascading from modern architecture with bay views. Best time: Midday for bright colors, or golden hour for warm tones.
- Miami Beach Boardwalk: Long perspective shots with beach and ocean. Best time: Sunrise for joggers and soft light, or sunset for dramatic skies.

- Vizcaya Gardens: European-style gardens and fountains with historic villa backdrop. Best time: Early morning (10am opening) for fewer visitors in frames.
- Venetian Causeway: Bridge views of downtown Miami skyline. Best time: Blue hour when city lights reflect on Biscayne Bay. Bring tripod for long exposures.
- Fairchild Tropical Botanic Garden: Exotic plants, including rare palms and colorful flowers. Best time: Midday when butterfly conservatory is most active.
- Museum Park: Downtown skyline views from waterfront park. Best time: Sunset for silhouette shots against colorful sky, or blue hour for city lights.
- Espanola Way: Mediterranean-style pedestrian street with pink buildings and string lights. Best time: Late afternoon or evening when lights create warm ambiance.
- Design District Palm Trees: Perfectly lined palms create stunning symmetry. Best time: Midday for dramatic shadows, or sunset for backlit silhouettes.
- Lincoln Road Mall: Pedestrian street with Art Deco elements and people-watching. Best time: Golden hour (5-7pm) for warm light and active street scene.

Photography Tips: Miami is incredibly photogenic year-round. Bring polarizing filter for beach and water shots to reduce glare. Wide-angle lens captures architecture best. Respect private property and ask permission for portraits of street performers. Many locations are free; arrive early to popular spots during peak season.

Electricity & Technical Information

Voltage & Frequency: United States uses 120 volts AC, 60 Hz. This differs from most other countries which use 220-240V.

Plug Types: Type A and Type B (American standard)

- Type A: Two flat parallel pins
- Type B: Two flat parallel pins plus one round grounding pin

Adapters: Visitors from Europe, Asia, Africa, and Oceania will need plug adapters to fit US outlets. Buy adapters before departure or at airport shops. Available at drugstores like CVS and Walgreens ($5-15).

Voltage Converters: Many modern electronics (laptops, phone chargers, cameras) are dual voltage (110-240V) and only need plug adapters. Check your device's label. Hair dryers, curling irons, and some appliances may need voltage converters if not dual voltage. Hotels often provide hairdryers.

USB Charging: Most hotels offer USB ports in rooms or at front desks. Miami International Airport has charging stations throughout terminals. Many restaurants and cafes have outlets available.

Important: Using high-wattage European appliances (like hair dryers) without proper converter can damage devices and create fire hazards. When in doubt, use hotel-provided appliances.

Miami Cuisine & Dining

Must-Try Dishes:

- Cuban Sandwich: Pressed sandwich with ham, roasted pork, Swiss cheese, pickles, and mustard on Cuban bread. Best at Versailles, Sanguich de Miami, or Enriqueta's.
- Stone Crab Claws: Miami's signature seafood (October-May season). Served cold with mustard sauce. Joe's Stone Crab is the institution, but expect long waits.
- Ceviche: Fresh fish marinated in citrus juice with onions and cilantro. Available at numerous Latin restaurants.
- Ropa Vieja: Shredded beef in tomato sauce - traditional Cuban comfort food.
- Key Lime Pie: Tangy, creamy Florida dessert. Try at Kush or Joe's Stone Crab.
- Arepa: Venezuelan corn cakes stuffed with various fillings. Bachour or Puro Peru.
- Pastelito: Flaky Cuban pastry filled with guava, cheese, or meat. Available at any Cuban bakery.
- Café Cubano: Strong, sweet espresso shot - Miami's fuel. Order at any ventanita (walk-up window).

Dining Areas:

- Little Havana: Authentic Cuban cuisine, family-run restaurants, ventanitas
- South Beach: Upscale dining, celebrity chef restaurants, beachfront cafes (tourist-priced)
- Wynwood: Trendy eateries, fusion cuisine, craft breweries, food trucks
- Brickell: Upscale international dining, rooftop bars, business lunch spots
- Coconut Grove: Waterfront dining, casual bistros, outdoor cafes
- Design District: Fine dining, celebrity chef concepts, sophisticated atmosphere

Dining Tips:

- Reservations: Essential for popular restaurants, especially weekends. Book 1-2 weeks ahead for top spots during peak season.
- Tipping: Standard 18-20% for good service. 15% minimum. Some restaurants add automatic gratuity for parties of 6+.
- Meal times: Lunch 11:30am-2:30pm, Dinner starts 6pm but Miamians eat late (8-10pm common). Many restaurants open until midnight or later.
- Dress code: South Beach upscale restaurants require smart casual (no shorts, flip-flops, or tank tops). Most other areas are casual.
- Happy hours: Many restaurants offer 5-7pm specials on drinks and appetizers - great way to sample upscale venues affordably.
- Food delivery: Uber Eats, DoorDash, and Postmates widely available throughout Miami.

Budget Dining: Cuban ventanitas offer meals under $10. Food trucks in Wynwood provide quality food $8-15. Publix supermarket has excellent prepared foods and sandwiches. Farmers markets offer fresh, affordable options.

Dietary Restrictions: Miami has excellent options for all dietary needs. Many restaurants offer vegetarian, vegan, and gluten-free menus. Latin cuisine naturally includes many plant-based options. Always inform servers of allergies.

Local Secret: Skip touristy Ocean Drive restaurants. Walk 2 blocks inland for better food at half the price with local atmosphere.
